SUMMARY.

The Imperial Government has announced the Constitution embodying responsible government for the Transvaal.

Mr. Winston Churchill stated in the Commons that no difference was to be made between Britons & Boers.

There will be manhood suffrage.

About 300 of resident in the colony six months (excluding garrisons), will be entitled to a vote.

Members of the Assembly were adequately paid, and were elected for five years.

The seats will number 65-24 to the Rand, 9 to Pretoria, and 29 to the rest of the country.

Speeches in the Lower House will be permissible in Dutch or English.

Mr. Churchill said there will be more British voters than Dutchmen.

He hoped that there will be a coalition government, with a moderate leader acceptable to both parties.

Such a solution, he added, would be a Godsend to South Africa.

The Second House for the first Parliament will consist of 15 members, nominated by the Governor-General.

Afterwards members of the second Chamber will be elective.

Freedom to recruit black labour independently of the Native Affairs Association was conceded to the large mining areas.

In regard to this concession the Robinson Report will surrender 3000 outstanding Chinese Licences.

The Constitution will prevent labour of a servile character.

The Orange River Colony will receive a Constitutional Act.

The Opposition in the Lords and Commons accepted responsibility for the new Constitution.

THE COMMONWEALTH PARLIAMENT.

— THE SENATE.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL REPORTERS.)

MELBOURNE, Wednesday.

TARIFF COMMISSION REPORTS.

The President took the chair at 2.30 p.m.

MINISTER OF DEFENCE. In reply to Senator Clemons (T.), said it had been complained that extra payments to States since federation supplied an answer to those who complained that certain States had been unjustly treated. He said the extra money was available to the States had they not joined the federation?

The PRIME MINISTER, in reply to Mr. FRAZER (W.A.), you will get a warm reception.

PAYMENTS TO STATES. Mr. FRAZER (W.A.) said it had been complained that extra payments to States since federation supplied an answer to those who complained that certain States had been unjustly treated. He said the extra money was available to the States had they not joined the federation?

The PRIME MINISTER said the creation was not one so much as a theory, but a hypothesis. If Western Australia had retained a similar tariff to that of the Commonwealth, the export of copper would have been the same as that State. Only a part of the surplus returned to the State was contributed by the people of Western Australia, while the increase of nearly 77 per cent. (Hear, hear.)

TRANSFER OF INSCRIBED STOCK BILL. This bill was received from the Legislative Assembly, and was read the first time. The bill would make an order of the day for next sitting day.

The PRIME MINISTER, replying to Mr. Fisher (Q.), said the sugar quota was paid out of the Commonwealth's quota of the export.

Mr. GLYNN (S.A.) asked whether under the rebate system the Commonwealth lost the whole of the rebate.

CHESS MATCH TELEGRAMS. The MINISTER OF DEFENCE, replying to Senator Baldwin (N.S.W.), said it was true that in connection with the recent telegrams the State of the Commonwealth and chess match between New South Wales and Victoria full rates were charged in Sydney, and the same were charged for telegram. The Acting Postmaster-General in Sydney reported that full rates were charged there because the members of the Commonwealth and private traders of the Commonwealth and private traders of the Commonwealth and private traders upon whom the Government urged that the reports should be presented at the meeting, having regard to the advisability of completing the work of the session by the end of September.

TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILWAY SURVEY. The bill to authorise a survey of the rail route to connect the eastern States and Western Australia was read the first time.

MAIL CONTRACT. Senator KEATING (Hon. Minister), replying to Senator Baldwin (N.S.W.) and the company for which Mr. Croker had signed the mail contract agreed that it was in existence, and the contract bound the company. Mr. Croker would be permitted to expand and broaden his business, and he had no objection to the bill.

Mr. WATSON (N.S.W.) asked whether an estimate of about £10,000,000 for the properties had been made.

The MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS, replying to a question, said that on the 15th of this month a committee of officers received a copy of the State of the Commonwealth and proposed to be held in Melbourne in pursuance of resolutions adopted at the Premiers' Conference to consider the principles to be carried out in the valuation of State properties. A resolution was passed at the conference that properties were to be valued on the basis of transfer and the value of the buildings for which they were used. Some of the States, according to this resolution, had sent in estimates, and the value of the buildings for which they were used.

Mr. WATSON (N.S.W.) asked whether an estimate of about £10,000,000 for the properties had been made.

The PRIME MINISTER, replying to Mr. Watson, said that the amount was given above the amount which had been made for the purpose of certain reports.

Mr. GLYNN (S.A.) asked, in view of the fact that an estimate of £10,000,000 had been produced, whether the amount given above the amount which had been made for the purpose of certain reports.
